For breakrooms, small businesses, or those who produce small amounts of food waste, we suggest purchasing a compost pail. This is a great starting point for businesses who are unsure of how much food waste they create or who have never done organics recycling before. Below, SacGreenTeam has provided a list of recommended pails:

Compost Pail Options

- SURE CLOSE KITCHEN WASTE COLLECTION PAIL - Walmart.com - Walmart.com
- Green Kitchen Compost Pail with Filter | Bed Bath & Beyond \(bedbathandbeyond.com\)
- OXO Good Grips® Compost Bin | Bed Bath & Beyond \(bedbathandbeyond.com\)

We recommend lining your indoor organic waste cart with newspaper or paper bags. You can also use liners; however, the liners do need to have a logo indicating they are compostable. They might look like this:

We have provided some acceptable ones below with the gallon size range and purchase links.

Acceptable Liners

- BioBag • Food Scrap Bags & Commercial Liners \(biobagusa.com\) (ranges from 2-96 gallon bags)
- Welcome to Pitt Plastics
- Natur-Bag Compostable Bags | BPI Certified 100% Compostable \(naturbag.com\) (3-96 gallon bags)
- Tall Kitchen Compostable Bags Lemon Scent | Glad (for small pails only)

Before purchasing liners, please check with your hauler that they are accepted.
